

July 4, 1967

Dear Sir:

After reading the events that followed President's Kennedy's murder, I can assume that you have one of the lowest police force in the country. The way you handled the situation that happened after Kennedy's death is a joke but you probably already know. If this had happened in a normal part of the country you would have all probably been fired.

Thank you,

Robert Ryan

6335N. 25TH ST

Phoenix Arizona